

AJL & ALA

As an ALA affiliate, AJL welcomes all ALA members to join our active and engaged association! Perhaps you work in a public library with a significant Jewish population; perhaps you have an affinity for Jewish books or an interest in Judaica librarianship; or perhaps you would like to learn more about our awards programs. You do not need to be Jewish or to work in a Judaic library to be an individual member. All you need is an interest in all forms of media relating to all things Jewish.

Come join us!

About AJL

The Association of Jewish Libraries promotes Jewish literacy through enhancement of libraries and library resources and through leadership for the profession and practitioners of Judaic librarianship. The Association fosters access to information, learning, teaching and research related to Jews, Judaism, the Jewish experience and Israel.

Get Involved

You can affect the world of Jewish librarianship! Take part in listserv discussions, contribute bibliographies, join a committee, help plan conferences, or even become a leader on the Council or Board. Our volunteer-run organization depends on members like you.

Benefits

AJL News & Reviews

These two quarterly publications keep members up-to-date on association news, and offer reviews of books, sound recordings, and videos that are relevant to Judaica collections.

Judaica Librarianship

A peer-reviewed journal that provides a forum for scholarship on all theoretical or practical aspects of Jewish studies librarianship.

Annual Conference

AJL meets annually to discuss topics of interest to librarians serving Jewish communities or responsible for Judaic media. Both Divisions provide conference programming of interest to all librarians.

Stipends & Scholarships

Members are eligible for conference attendance assistance.

Divisions

You do NOT need to join a division to become an AJL member, but divisions do help you find others who share your experiences.

RAS

AJL's Research Library, Archive, & Special Collections Division serves librarians working in academic settings.

SSCPL

The Synagogue, School, Center, & Public Library Division serves librarians working with the general public, including children.

Listserv

HaSafran (Hebrew for "The Librarian") is AJL's Listserv that provides a forum for announcements, Q & A, and discussions about topics related to Judaica collections.
